LETTER FROM THE CEO & PRESIDENT

We are pleased to share with you highlights from a year of accomplishments and growth that Our Fund Foundation experienced in 2021. While the equilibrium we sought in the wake of the pandemic was elusive because of new virus variants, Our Fund's assets continued to grow to nearly $25M allowing us to have our greatest year of impact to date. As was the case in 2020, Our Fund was able to meet the moment in 2021 to support LGBTQ-serving agencies to provide lifesaving and lifelifting programs and services that have been especially critical in the reality of Covid.

The "yearbook" theme of this report is a nod to the fact that we were unable to properly celebrate our 10th Anniversary in 2021 due to the challenges to gathering in person. In a year when we wanted to host parties and celebrate with our family of stakeholders, our focus remained steady on uplifting agencies in our network so that causes important to LGBTQ people in South Florida were served and supported. We missed a year of in-person events and gatherings that would have all shined a light on Our Fund's founders and funders that have made our organization possible. We promise to make it happen in the future.

In 2021, Our Fund lost two of our founding and most generous supporters – Paul Fasana and Ted Schultz – who made a tremendous difference to our community through their volunteerism and generosity and also took steps during their lives to ensure that their legacies will carry on that tradition. We celebrate their generosity, along with Jack Huizenga who passed in 2020, in the pages of this report. Please read their stories with the special attention these gentlemen have earned.

Be well,

David Jobin
CEO & President

"It is an honor to do our work at the intersection of people who care and causes that matter."

ADDRESSING COMMUNITY NEEDS

In 2021, Our Fund Foundation completed a comprehensive community needs assessment in order to align its giving with current needs and priorities. The findings identified 3 categories for grantmaking that encompass the most critical needs and priorities of the community:

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Our Fund's grantmaking addresses the unique health related risks and disparities LGBTQ individuals experience, including physical, emotional, social, and behavioral aspects of health as well as the social isolation of LGBTQ elders. Included as priorities for Our Fund are HIV/AIDS, addiction and mental health, and healthcare access, affordability, and responsiveness.

EQUALITY & SOCIAL JUSTICE

This grantmaking category encompasses discrimination prevention, equity, and inclusion and includes advocacy, political mobilization, rights, and legal protections. It is applicable to prejudice, bullying, hate crimes, and vulnerable population and minority population empowerment.

ARTS & CULTURE

Our Fund recognizes the importance of arts and culture to inspire, empower and transform individuals and communities. Grants from this fund promote South Florida artistic expression that amplifies LGBTQ voices and works in the service of preserving, telling and celebrating LGBTQ stories and promoting LGBTQ equality and social justice.

In 2021, grants were awarded in Health & Wellness and Arts & Culture categories (Equality & Social Justice grants to be awarded in February 2022). The next four pages offer stories of agencies addressing the needs of the community and the supporters who stepped up to help make Our Fund grants possible.

BIG BROTHERS & BIG SISTERS OF BROWARD

"Bringing together Bigs and Littles in one-to-one mentoring relationships fulfills our mission of igniting the power and potential of youth. We're so pleased and grateful to have the support of Our Fund, which sponsors LGBTQ+ matches. Because of their support, our LGBTQ+ youth are welcomed and affirmed by successful adults who are their allies. It's incredibly rewarding to watch both the youth and adults learn from these nurturing relationships."

- Malena Mendez
President & CEO

TRANSSOCIAL

"Even with the growing awareness and acceptance of Trans people, finding the necessary funds to support transgender programs and services presents challenges. Most traditional private and public funding sources don't include transgender issues in their diversity initiatives. So to have Our Fund step up not only provides needed resources, but it also sets an example for other funders."

- Ashley & Morgan Mayfaire
Co-founders

GILDA'S CLUB SOUTH FLORIDA

"Because of the unique health factors facing LBT women, including detection of cancer later than the general population, Gilda's Club South Florida has relied on support from Our Fund to create special programs and services that address these disparities. The ongoing partnership between Gilda's Club and Our Fund has improved the lives and quality of life for many in our community."

"To have Our Fund solicit and review programs to improve the health and wellness of South Florida's LGBTQ community ensures that my philanthropy has the maximum impact. Our Fund identifies the most critical issues facing LGBTQ individuals and families and then leverages its familiarity with non-profit agencies to invest in the best solutions."

- Sue Wilder

"We've watched the care and expertise that Our Fund brings to its role as a grantor and leader in South Florida's LGBTQ community. Our decision to provide a gift to Our Fund's Health & Wellness Fund is a way for us to put our support behind those agencies and programs that Our Fund deems the most critical to the well-being of our community."

- Michael Kalb & Dion Westerman

"I was very excited to support Our Fund's grant to Big Brothers Big Sisters' LGBTQ programs in Broward County. We share a common goal in not only wanting to help the LGBTQ community, but also providing opportunities and resources for youth in need. It is heartening to know that Our Fund is a partner in supporting projects that intersect with my passions and where I hope to make the biggest difference."

NIKI LOPEZ CREATIVE

"As a relatively new arts agency in South Florida, having Our Fund's endorsement helps us to cast our nets much further. What's Your Elephant uses the arts as a catalyst for community building, advocacy, and healing. With Our Fund's financial support, we are able to attract other funders and collaborators that share the vision - that our community is ready for this work."

- Niki Lopez
 Founder

HUED SONGS

Our Fund's support has been absolutely pivotal and catalytic to our success. As a newer organization and a first-time grantee, their support, encouragement, and partnership paved the way for some of our most ambitious work to date. Just as important, though, is the way Our Fund invited us to bring our full selves into the grant process, giving us the space to tell our stories, unapologetically.

- Kunya Rowley
 Founder & Artistic Director

PLAYS OF WILTON

"The Our Fund grant had a huge impact on our non-profit in multiple ways. Not only did the Our Fund grant add some financial stability to our organization but it caused other donors to take us more seriously as well as raising our stature in the community. It also sent a message to our Board of Directors that we were on the right path which in turn strengthened their commitment to Plays Of Wilton and our mission of supporting LGBTQ plays and playwrights."

- Scott Clearwater & Chris Ambs

"Given my history with Our Fund, I'm fully aware of the vetting of agencies and programs that goes on behind the scenes. So when asked to support the slate of Arts & Culture grantees, I knew that the grant panel had reviewed the applications and that agencies were selected for maximum impact. I'm also confident that agencies are solidifying leadership and operations because of Our Fund's oversight."

*- Tony Timiraos
Founding President/CEO - Our Fund Foundation*

"As a relative newcomer to South Florida's LGBTQ scene, I relied on Our Fund to help me gain an understanding and appreciation of the landscape of LGBTQ non-profit organizations. As part of that education, I quickly gained a respect for the thoroughness with which Our Fund approaches community grants. My philanthropy is in good hands when I gift to Our Fund's community grant cycle."

- John Pritchard

THE IMPORTANCE OF LEGACY GIVING

A legacy fund with Our Fund provides you with an opportunity to include charitable giving in your estate plan and make a difference for future generations. These gifts cost nothing during your lifetime and will support causes and agencies that are important to you after your death. If you would like to include your community in your estate plan, please contact Our Fund today so that we can help guide you through a simple and straight forward process.

Before their passing, Ted Schultz, Paul Fasana and Jack Huizenga each created thoughtful and well-executed estate plans, entrusting Our Fund Foundation with their planned legacy gifts. These assets are being disseminated to vital organizations and causes according to their respective personal wishes, ensuring they will each have a lasting impact on South Florida's LGBTQ community for generations to come.

TED SCHULTZ

November 11, 1938 - February 17, 2021

Ted was a thoughtful and generous philanthropist who supported many LGBT-supportive agencies throughout his remarkable life. Even after his passing, his philanthropic contributions will endure through his Legacy Fund at Our Fund Foundation

Ted and his late partner, James Rieck, enjoyed 43 years together before James's death in 2006.

The couple lived in New York City near Lincoln Center and were frequent concert goers, sharing a special bond over a love of classical music. After relocating to South Florida, Ted dedicated himself to the South Florida Symphony and proudly served as Member of the Stradivarius Society.

An enthusiastic Bridge player, Ted hosted Gay Bridge at Pride Center at Equality Park and competed regularly with friends.

He also supported numerous other charities including The Pride Center and The Stonewall National Museum & Archives, an institution near and dear to his heart, especially as he was the gifted architect of the current Stonewall National Museum & Archives located at ArtServe.

Through proper planning, Ted has made sure that our community will benefit in perpetuity from the causes that enriched his own life.

PAUL FASANA

July 20, 1933 - April 1, 2021

After serving in the U.S. Army during the Korean War, Paul attended UC Berkeley and received a B.A. and a Masters of Library Science. His remarkable career was dedicated to library administration and he proudly worked at Columbia University Libraries and the New York Public Library where he served as senior vice president and director of the Research Libraries until his retirement.

Paul served as the chief archivist at the Stonewall National Museum & Archives, where he volunteered for more than 20-years. He loved sharing his knowledge with others and his many contributions enabled the LGBT community to thrive by keeping its history alive.

Paul and his late partner Robert Graham were devoted to one another for almost 50 years. They supported many causes by volunteering their time and through charitable giving. In January of 2020, Our Fund Foundation presented Paul with the inaugural Dick Schwarz Award for Lifetime Achievemen for his extensive philanthropic contributions.

Thanks to his endowed fund at Our Fund Foundation, Paul's legacy will live on through his continued financial backing for various LGBT-supportive programs for seniors and youth, as well as support for the Sunshine Cathedral, which has a chapel named after the couple, and the Stonewall National Museum & Archives.

JACK HUIZENGA

September 28, 1939 - August 23, 2020

Even after his passing, Jack's Legacy lives on. His philanthropic contributions will endure through his Legacy Fund at Our Fund Foundation.

Jack and his devoted late partner Donald Broaddus enjoyed more than 50 years together and led remarkable lives. They enjoyed traveling the world and generously contributing to many LGBT-supportive agencies. Jack was a resident of John Knox Village in Pompano Beach and was a proud member of the Sunshine Cathedral.

Before his passing, Jack mindfully created a Legacy Fund at Our Fund Foundation to ensure the causes and organizations which matter to him most during his remarkable life could continue to benefit from his financial support.

Thanks to Jack's forethought and generosity his Legacy Fund will continue to support LGBT senior programs at SunServe and need-based scholarships at his alma meter the University of Michigan, through the Spectrum Center that supports LGBT+ students.

Jack Huizenga and his partner Donald Broaddus were early supporters of Our Fund Foundation as they recognized and valued the importance of aiding LGBT-supportive causes. Their generosity will be recognized for generations because of the steps they took during their lives to make certain that their estate reflected the values by which they lived their lives.

ANNUAL CAMPAIGN

Many generous donors support Our Fund Foundation every year. We rely on estate gifts to grow our endowment that provides grants to help meet the ever-changing needs of our community. In addition to estate gifts, generous donors step up each grant cycle to support and supplement the agency grants listed earlier in this report. Finally, we have a faithful family of annual supporters whose gifts make Our Fund's operations possible. The following is a list of donors who supported our annual operating campaign and grant funds in 2021.
